CAPSBC RELEASES 2007 REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS FOR FUNDING UNDER HUD SUPER NOFA

In response to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) release of the 2007 Super Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) for the Continuum of Care (CoC) Homeless Assistance Programs, Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County. (CAPSBC) announces the release of the 2007 Supportive Housing Program (SHP); Shelter Plus Care (S+C); and Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Request for Proposals (RFP).

It is anticipated that approximately $6,104,201 in "pro rata" funds will be available to assist the homeless in San Bernardino County and up to an additional $900,000 in "bonus" funding for the inclusion of a new permanent housing project for the chronically homeless. Overall the approximate funding for San Bernardino County's CoC is $7 million for this competition.

CAPSBC is soliciting proposals from non-profits and local government providers of homeless services that will effectively utilize all or part of the funds as grantees.

There will be a mandatory Technical Assistance Workshop on Monday, April 16, 2007, 9:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m., at Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County, Training Room, 696 South Tippecanoe Avenue, San Bernardino, CA 92415. All proposals are due no later than 4:00 p.m. (Electronic) Submission on Friday, May 11, 2007. Follow-up (Hardcopy) Submission Wednesday, May 23, 2007 no later than 4:00 p.m.
